

Hands Up Project Conference 2019: Language and Resilience

Saturday, 6th April 2019
09:00 - 17:00
UCLAN in Preston,
Fylde Rd, Preston PR1 2HE

- 09:30-10.15 Tony Capstick, University of Reading
Teaching English in multilingual refugee settings: language, displacement & resilience
- 10.20-10.50 Chris Sowton and Julietta Schoenmann: IATEFL Global Issues SIG coordinators
Creating resilient teachers: reflections on training teachers in refugee situations
- 10.50-11.20 Coffee Break
- 11.20-11.50 Richard Gallen: City College, London
Watching (and) learning: interaction and participation in an ESOL classroom.
- 11.50-12.20 Nick Bilbrough, HUP founder and Coordinator
Tense conversations? Live linked class with adult learners of English in Gaza.
- 12.30-13.00 Remote theatre performances, live linked from Palestine
- 13.00-14.00 Palestinian Lunch...
- 14.00-14.30 Colm Downes, English Projects Manager, Occupied Palestine and Iraq
Reaching the hard to reach - Innovations in Teacher Education in Palestine & MENA
- 14.30-15.00 Alexander Guzik and Sahar Salha, HUP volunteers in Russia and Gaza
Imagination: the key to unlocking learner confidence
- 15.30-16.00 Maricarmen Gamero, Warwick University
Resilient Strategies in Times of Crisis: The case of Venezuelan EFL Teachers
- 16.00-16.45 Scott Thornbury: ELT author and HUP trustee
Teaching English in Difficult Circumstances: How Teachers Cope
- 16.45-17.00 Live, face to face theatre performance with young learners from Palestine.

To book your place please pay the £15 registration fee at bit.ly/HUPC2019 or scan the barcode:
This fee includes refreshments throughout the day and a cooked Palestinian lunch.

uclan

